

EFPIA Code Self-Assessment Checklist

Check your processes against the main requirements of the EFPIA Code of Practice (2026 edition), article by article: promotion, events and hospitality, gifts, donations, contracted services, samples, patient organisations and disclosure.

For: Compliance, medical and commercial teams at companies operating under EFPIA-member national codes.

Promotion

- ☐ No promotion before marketing authorisation or outside approved indications, and promotion is consistent with the SmPC. Art. 1
- ☐ Promotional material includes SmPC-consistent essential information with its date, the supply classification and, where appropriate, price and reimbursement conditions. Art. 2
- ☐ Claims are accurate, balanced, up to date and capable of substantiation, which is provided promptly on request. Art. 3
- ☐ “Safe” is never used without proper qualification, “new” is not used after one year, and no material states a product has no side-effects. Art. 3.07–3.09
- ☐ Quotations and artwork are faithfully reproduced, with precise sources. Art. 3.06, 4
- ☐ Promotion goes only to HCPs with a reasonable need or interest, mailing lists are kept up to date, and digital promotion is sent only with prior permission. Art. 6
- ☐ Promotion is never disguised, and sponsored material clearly states the sponsor. Art. 7

Events and hospitality

- ☐ Events are held in appropriate venues, avoiding those renowned for entertainment or extravagant. Art. 10.01
- ☐ Events outside the home country are justified by where invitees come from or where the relevant expertise is. Art. 10.02
- ☐ Hospitality is limited to travel, meals, accommodation and genuine registration fees, is reasonable, and excludes entertainment. Art. 10.04, 10.07, 10.08
- ☐ Meals stay within the monetary threshold in the host country’s national code. Art. 10.05
- ☐ Hospitality is offered only to participants in their own right. Art. 10.06

Gifts, materials and funding

- ☐ No gifts for personal benefit, cash, cash equivalents or personal services, and no promotional aids for prescription-only medicines. Art. 11
- ☐ Informational or educational materials and items of medical utility are inexpensive, relevant and not product-branded unless essential. Art. 17
- ☐ Donations and grants go only to HCOs or POs, support healthcare, research or education, are documented, and are not an inducement. Art. 12
- ☐ Sponsorship is clearly acknowledged, logos are used only with written permission, and the company does not require to be sole funder. Art. 13–14

Contracted services

- ☐ A written contract specifying the services and basis for payment is agreed in advance. Art. 15.02
- ☐ The legitimate need is documented in advance, selection criteria relate to that need, and numbers are no greater than necessary. Art. 15.02
- ☐ Remuneration is reasonable and reflects fair market value; records of the services are kept. Art. 15.02
- ☐ Contracts ask consultants to declare the relationship when they write or speak publicly on related matters. Art. 15.03

Education, studies and samples

- ☐ Lifelong learning activities are non-promotional, fair and balanced, and the company's role is acknowledged. Art. 16
- ☐ Non-interventional studies are primarily scientific, have a written plan, are approved and supervised by the scientific service, and use sales representatives only administratively. Art. 18
- ☐ Samples are given only exceptionally, on a signed written request, within the 4x2 standard, in the smallest presentation, marked and with the SmPC, and are accounted for. Art. 19

Company staff

- ☐ A scientific service is in place, with a medical doctor or pharmacist certifying promotional material before release. Art. 20.01
- ☐ A senior employee is responsible for ensuring the company meets the applicable codes. Art. 20.01
- ☐ Sales representatives are trained, behave ethically, and pass on side-effect reports to the scientific service. Art. 20.01–20.02

Patient organisations

- ☐ PO independence is respected and POs are never asked to promote a prescription-only medicine. Art. 21.01
- ☐ Significant support is covered by a written agreement stating the amount and purpose. Art. 21.03
- ☐ The company does not influence sponsored PO material in its commercial interest. Art. 21.04

Disclosure of transfers of value

- ☐ Transfers of value are disclosed annually for each full calendar year, within six months of the year end. Art. 22.01
- ☐ Disclosures stay public for at least three years, and records are kept for at least five years. Art. 22.01
- ☐ Disclosures use the national template and platform that apply in each country. Art. 22.03

National industry codes transpose the EFPIA Code and may be stricter; national law also applies. This checklist summarises the EFPIA Code and is not legal advice.

Source: EFPIA Code of Practice (2026) — <https://www.efpia.eu/relationships-code/the-efpia-code/>

Eunomia Pharma Services · hello@eunomiapharmaservices.com · +44 7584 567018 · A trading name of Mivigilance Limited, registered in England and Wales, company number 12912269.